Subject: Registration and Facilitator Nominations Reminder- Developing An Inclusive Transfer

Culture: A Focus On Student Learning And Success Workshop

Dear Colleagues,

A gentle reminder that registration is now open for the Developing An Inclusive Transfer Culture: A Focus On Student Learning And Success Workshop. The workshop is co-hosted by Capital University and the Ohio Department of Higher Education and will be held on February 25, 2020 from 10:00am- 2:00pm at Capital University, Columbus, OH. Registration and networking will be held from 9:00am- 10:00am.

The goal of the workshop is to explore components of transfer culture; share and promote public/private transfer partnerships, pathways and best practices; and learn effective ways to award college credit for military training, experience, and coursework.

Each public and private institution is encouraged to send 3 representatives involved in transfer from a variety of roles. We welcome executive administrators such as a provost or chief academic officer, front line office staff such as a registrars, advisers, or admissions counselors, as well as faculty members from your institution.

- Attendees can register for the workshop here by January 31st
- We are also accepting both public and private facilitator nominations for conversational breakout sessions here
